This historic studios' event is a cooperative effort between PAPNM and the historic studios and museums; Taos Art Museum at Fechin House, The Blumenschein Museum and The Couse-Sharp Historic Site.

Registered participants will paint on the grounds of these historic museums and studios. With the exception of La Hacienda De Los Martinez, painting sites will offer panel stamping from 8:00am to 4pm. La Hacienda De Los Martinez panel stamping is offered at any of the three other sites. All sites will offer water and information to painters. Painters may paint on any of the grounds any day, gates will be open at 8:00am. In addition, Taos Art Museum at Fechin House will have a still life set-up for those interested in pursuing a "Fechin inspired" still life.

Awards:

Juried cash awards will be $300 for First Place, $200 for 2nd place and $100 for 3rd place.

General Requirements:

Entry is open to the first 50 PAPNM members to apply with preference to artists who have been juried into the Fechin Small Works Show. The Entry is posted at www.papnm.org.

After the Paintout period each artist will be allowed to enter one painting into the show (maximum size 8 x10 or 80 square inches).

All painting surfaces must be stamped on the back, prior to painting on them, during the event to be eligible for entry in the show.

All work must be at least 80% completed en plein air, within the allotted paintout period and at the specified paintout locations.

All work must be for sale. If an artist's painting sells and the buyer takes it, that artist may replace the sold painting with another stamped painting done during the Paintout, replacement paintings cannot be not stored on the gallery premises.

Artists receive 50% of sale price of painting.

Framing Requirements:

All work must be sturdily framed or gallery wrapped and ready to hang, with d-rings and wire. No metal frames or saw tooth hangers will be accepted. Artist name, title, price needs to appear on the supplied label and be affixed to the back of painting.
