MONDAY JUNE 6 THROUGH THURSDAY JUNE 9, 2022, 10 AM TO 4 PM

North Fourth Art Center, 4904 4th St NW, Albuquerque, NM 87107

ABOUT THIS WORKSHOP

This four-day intensive workshop is designed to rapidly elevate your creative motivation, experience, and skills. The instructional focus is on the materials, tools, and mark-making/application techniques to move your "palette knife" oil paintings to the next level. Morning lectures and demonstrations with hand-out materials will be followed by immersive practice with individual attention to encourage your artistic growth and to strengthen your unique artistic voice. Finishing, framing, art business basics, and a discovery forum will be covered on day four.

The setting for the workshop will be in a spacious, traditional art classroom with worktables, chairs, whiteboard, and projection system. Plentiful parking is available in the lot in front of the art center, which is also ADA compliant. Participants are responsible for bringing their own artist materials, easels, and refreshments. A detailed supply list and daily agenda will be provided upon registration. All participants must comply with all New Mexico Department of Health and facility guidelines for safe and responsible gathering.
