

Freedom in the Outdoors

Taos Historic Studios: Painting the Enchanted Circle

Taos New Mexico — Adventurers appreciate the essence of place that Plein Air painters capture during the Taos Juried Historic Studios Paint Out and Exhibition. This event celebrates the romance of Taos, New Mexico. Taos is known for its scenes of historic ranches, quaint shops and wild outdoor vistas.

“The early fall in Northern New Mexico is nothing short of enchanting. The biggest challenge our intrepid painters will face is what to capture in paint.” said Phyllis Gunderson, President at the Plein Air Painters of New Mexico. “The warm glow of golden aspens against the cool evergreens, along with the texture of history found in old adobe buildings, from sweeping mountain top vistas to deep canyons and arroyos, Taos and Enchanted Circle offers it all.”

Legacy

Past travelers and aspiring travelers can shop on the PAPNM.org website, or visit the event and gallery in person.

“You will be able to witness freedom of expression by beginners to master signature painters and all levels in between.” said Stephanie West, Communications Director, “What you will fall in love with is always a surprise!”

Opening Night:

September 25, 2021 at the Wilder-Nightingale Gallery, Taos, NM. Details will be available at our website. <https://www.papnm.org>

###

Plein Air Painters of New Mexico is a non-profit organization. <https://www.papnm.org>

For more information, press only, Co-Chairs:

Elizabeth Ming Cooper, (720) 933-4022

Elizabeth May, (831) 747-4143

Dick Wimberly, (505) 934-5432

